

Catalan Painting: From the 19th Century to the Surprising 20th Century

Revealing the astonishing richness and diversity of Catalan art, this lavish volume lives up to its subtitle. It begins with emotive neoclassical portraits and Romantic landscapes that parallel the poetic vistas of 19th-century American luminists. Marian Fortunys exotic orientalist studies, Joan Coloms impressionist railway yards, Aleix Clapess hovering symbolist figures and Ramon Casass flat, linear cafe-goers and cyclists serve as bridges to the 20th century. In a dry text, the author, former director of the Art Museums of Barcelona, traces a line that runs from Cubism to Dada, Surrealism and Conceptual art. Notable among the 101 tipped-in color plates are Salvador Dalis horrific prefiguration of the Spanish Civil War, Joan Mirós The Farm , a moonlit landscape of pure magic realism, Antoni Tapiess hypnotic Imaginary Garden and the abstractions of Joan-Josep Tharrat, who evokes cosmic worlds exploding with black, white and pink bursts of energy.
